March 5, 2010

ICTA award recognizes Guidewire's positive impact on the Canadian insurance market

SAN MATEO, Calif., March 5, 2010:

Guidewire Software, a leading provider of flexible core systems to property/casualty insurers, today announced that it has won an Insurance Canada.ca Technology Award (ICTA). Named "Best in Class: Technology Provider – Insurer Solutions", Guidewire was recognized for its 'implementation of technology which had the greatest positive impact on the business of insurance in Canada'.

Sponsored by Insurance-Canada.ca, the ICTA awards highlight and celebrate technologies that have demonstrated significant business impact. Awards were announced at the 2010 Insurance-Canada Annual Technology Conference held recently in Toronto.

"We are pleased to name Guidewire as our Best in Class solution provider. Guidewire has demonstrated a commitment to delivering high value solutions to the general insurance industry," commented Doug Grant, principal with Insurance-Canada.ca. "We are happy to celebrate their achievements in the Canadian market."

"We are grateful for this recognition and are pleased to accept the award on behalf of our Canadian customers," said John Raguin, chief executive officer, Guidewire Software. "This honor is every bit as much a recognition of their success, as it is of ours."
