

Guidewire Congratulates 2010 Innovation Award Winners - Amica Mutual, Mercury Insurance, and Missouri Employers Mutual

November 18, 2010

Innovation Awards go to those companies best demonstrating innovative and value added use of Guidewire Insurance Suite™ products

SAN MATEO, Calif., November 18, 2010:

Guidewire Software®, a leading provider of flexible core systems to property/casualty insurers, congratulates the winners of its 2010 Innovation Awards: Amica Mutual Insurance Company, Mercury Insurance Group, and Missouri Employers Mutual Insurance. Each winning company earned the recognition based on its innovative use or implementation of Guidewire's policy, billing or claims applications, resulting in key business value delivered to their respective organizations.

All Guidewire customers, whether in the process of implementing or extending their production-proven capabilities, were eligible for consideration. Winners were announced during Guidewire's annual conference – Connections 2010. The recognized projects demonstrate Guidewire technology at work helping these insurers deliver insurance their way. The 2010 winners are:

Amica Mutual Insurance Company – Multi-channel claims self-service for policyholders

Amica Mutual Insurance Company is a direct writer of personal lines insurance and is the oldest mutual insurer of automobiles in the United States. Amica has been ranked by J.D. Power and Associates "Highest in Customer Satisfaction" among National Auto Insurers for the past 11 years and among National Homeowner's Insurers for the past 9 years. Amica has been in production with Guidewire ClaimCenter since 2008 and is currently implementing Guidewire PolicyCenter.
