In his 16-year career at SAP, Anzy took on increasingly responsible roles in development, consulting, entrepreneurship, and strategic management. His strong leadership and passion for flawless execution resulted in SAP's significant growth and expansion in India, and established SAP as one of the top places to work in the country. An acknowledged software industry leader, Anzy has been an active participant in many business and technology forums as well as an inspirational thought leader on driving open innovation ecosystems. Anzy holds a Bachelor of Technology from the National Institute of Technology Calicut, as well as an MBA from the Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode.

"Anzy is a key addition to our leadership team, and his business and technical expertise will be invaluable to achieving our objectives," said Diego Devalle, Chief Product Development Officer. "He is joining us at a pivotal time for our growth in India, and will play an essential role in instilling a vision for our Bengaluru and Chennai development teams, shaping the strategic direction, and ensuring operational excellence that contributes to the overall success of Guidewire."

"I am excited to be a part of Guidewire and contribute to a company dedicated to maintaining its position as a leader in the insurance market," said Anzy. "Guidewire offers the perfect platform for driving innovation and flexibility, enabling our teams and customers to push the limits of value-focused insurance technology development."
