"We are honored to be recognized in the IDC FinTech Rankings as a Top 25 global technology provider," said Jeff Cooper, chief financial officer, Guidewire. "Guidewire's commitment to our customers' success helps unlock their agility and growth through innovation, engineering excellence, and cloud capabilities. This recognition represents Guidewire's dedication to the P&C insurance community, and the value that we deliver alongside our vast ecosystem of industry partners."

The 22nd annual ranking categorizes and evaluates the top global providers of financial technology based on calendar year revenues exclusively received from financial institutions and fintechs for hardware, software, and/or services. Guidewire and the other enterprises featured represent organizations committed to helping financial services companies successfully execute their digital transformation initiatives for the betterment of their customers around the world.

"IDC has been producing the IDC FinTech Rankings for over twenty years and has expanded the program to include the top 150 solutions providers to ensure we get the most accurate representation of the largest FinTech's in the world," said Marc DeCastro, research director at IDC. "The technology companies on this list provide the innovation necessary to keep the financial services at the forefront of providing modern digital experiences across all aspects of a customer's financial journey."
