Dr. Alexander Vollert joins Guidewire Software's Board of Directors.

"We are honored to welcome Dr. Alexander Vollert to Guidewire's Board of Directors," said Michael Keller, chairman of the board, Guidewire. "Alexander has been both an operator responsible for how a global insurer executes and a CEO accountable for its results, driving large-scale digital transformation and establishing AI at scale. As we infuse AI into our platform and applications, his experience will help us focus that work on what matters most for our customers' results."

Dr. Vollert served as chief operating officer of AXA SA, during which time he was a member of the company's Group Management Committee, and chief executive officer of AXA Group Operations through December 2025. Prior to that, he was chief executive officer of AXA Germany starting in 2016, and previously held senior leadership roles at Allianz SE, ultimately serving as chief executive officer of its German P&C business. During his tenure at AXA, he played a pivotal role in driving large-scale digital transformations and industrial-scale AI deployments, successfully establishing the company as a global AI leader in the insurance industry. Earlier in his career, he spent nine years at McKinsey & Company, advising financial services clients across multiple markets on strategy, technology and large-scale transformations. Since 2026, he has served as senior advisor to the Group Management Committee at AXA.
